You're not bugging me ☺ Here you go.

You can also find everything the applicant has submitted for noise since the first screencheck EIR review in the following folder:

Hi Ashley,

Attached is the noise EIR section and associated figures.

In a second e-mail I will provide Responses to comments on the Noise EIR & technical reports. Also, in the noise technical reports we missed a comment related to the back-up generators. This has been updated in the technical reports – copies attached to the second e-mail.

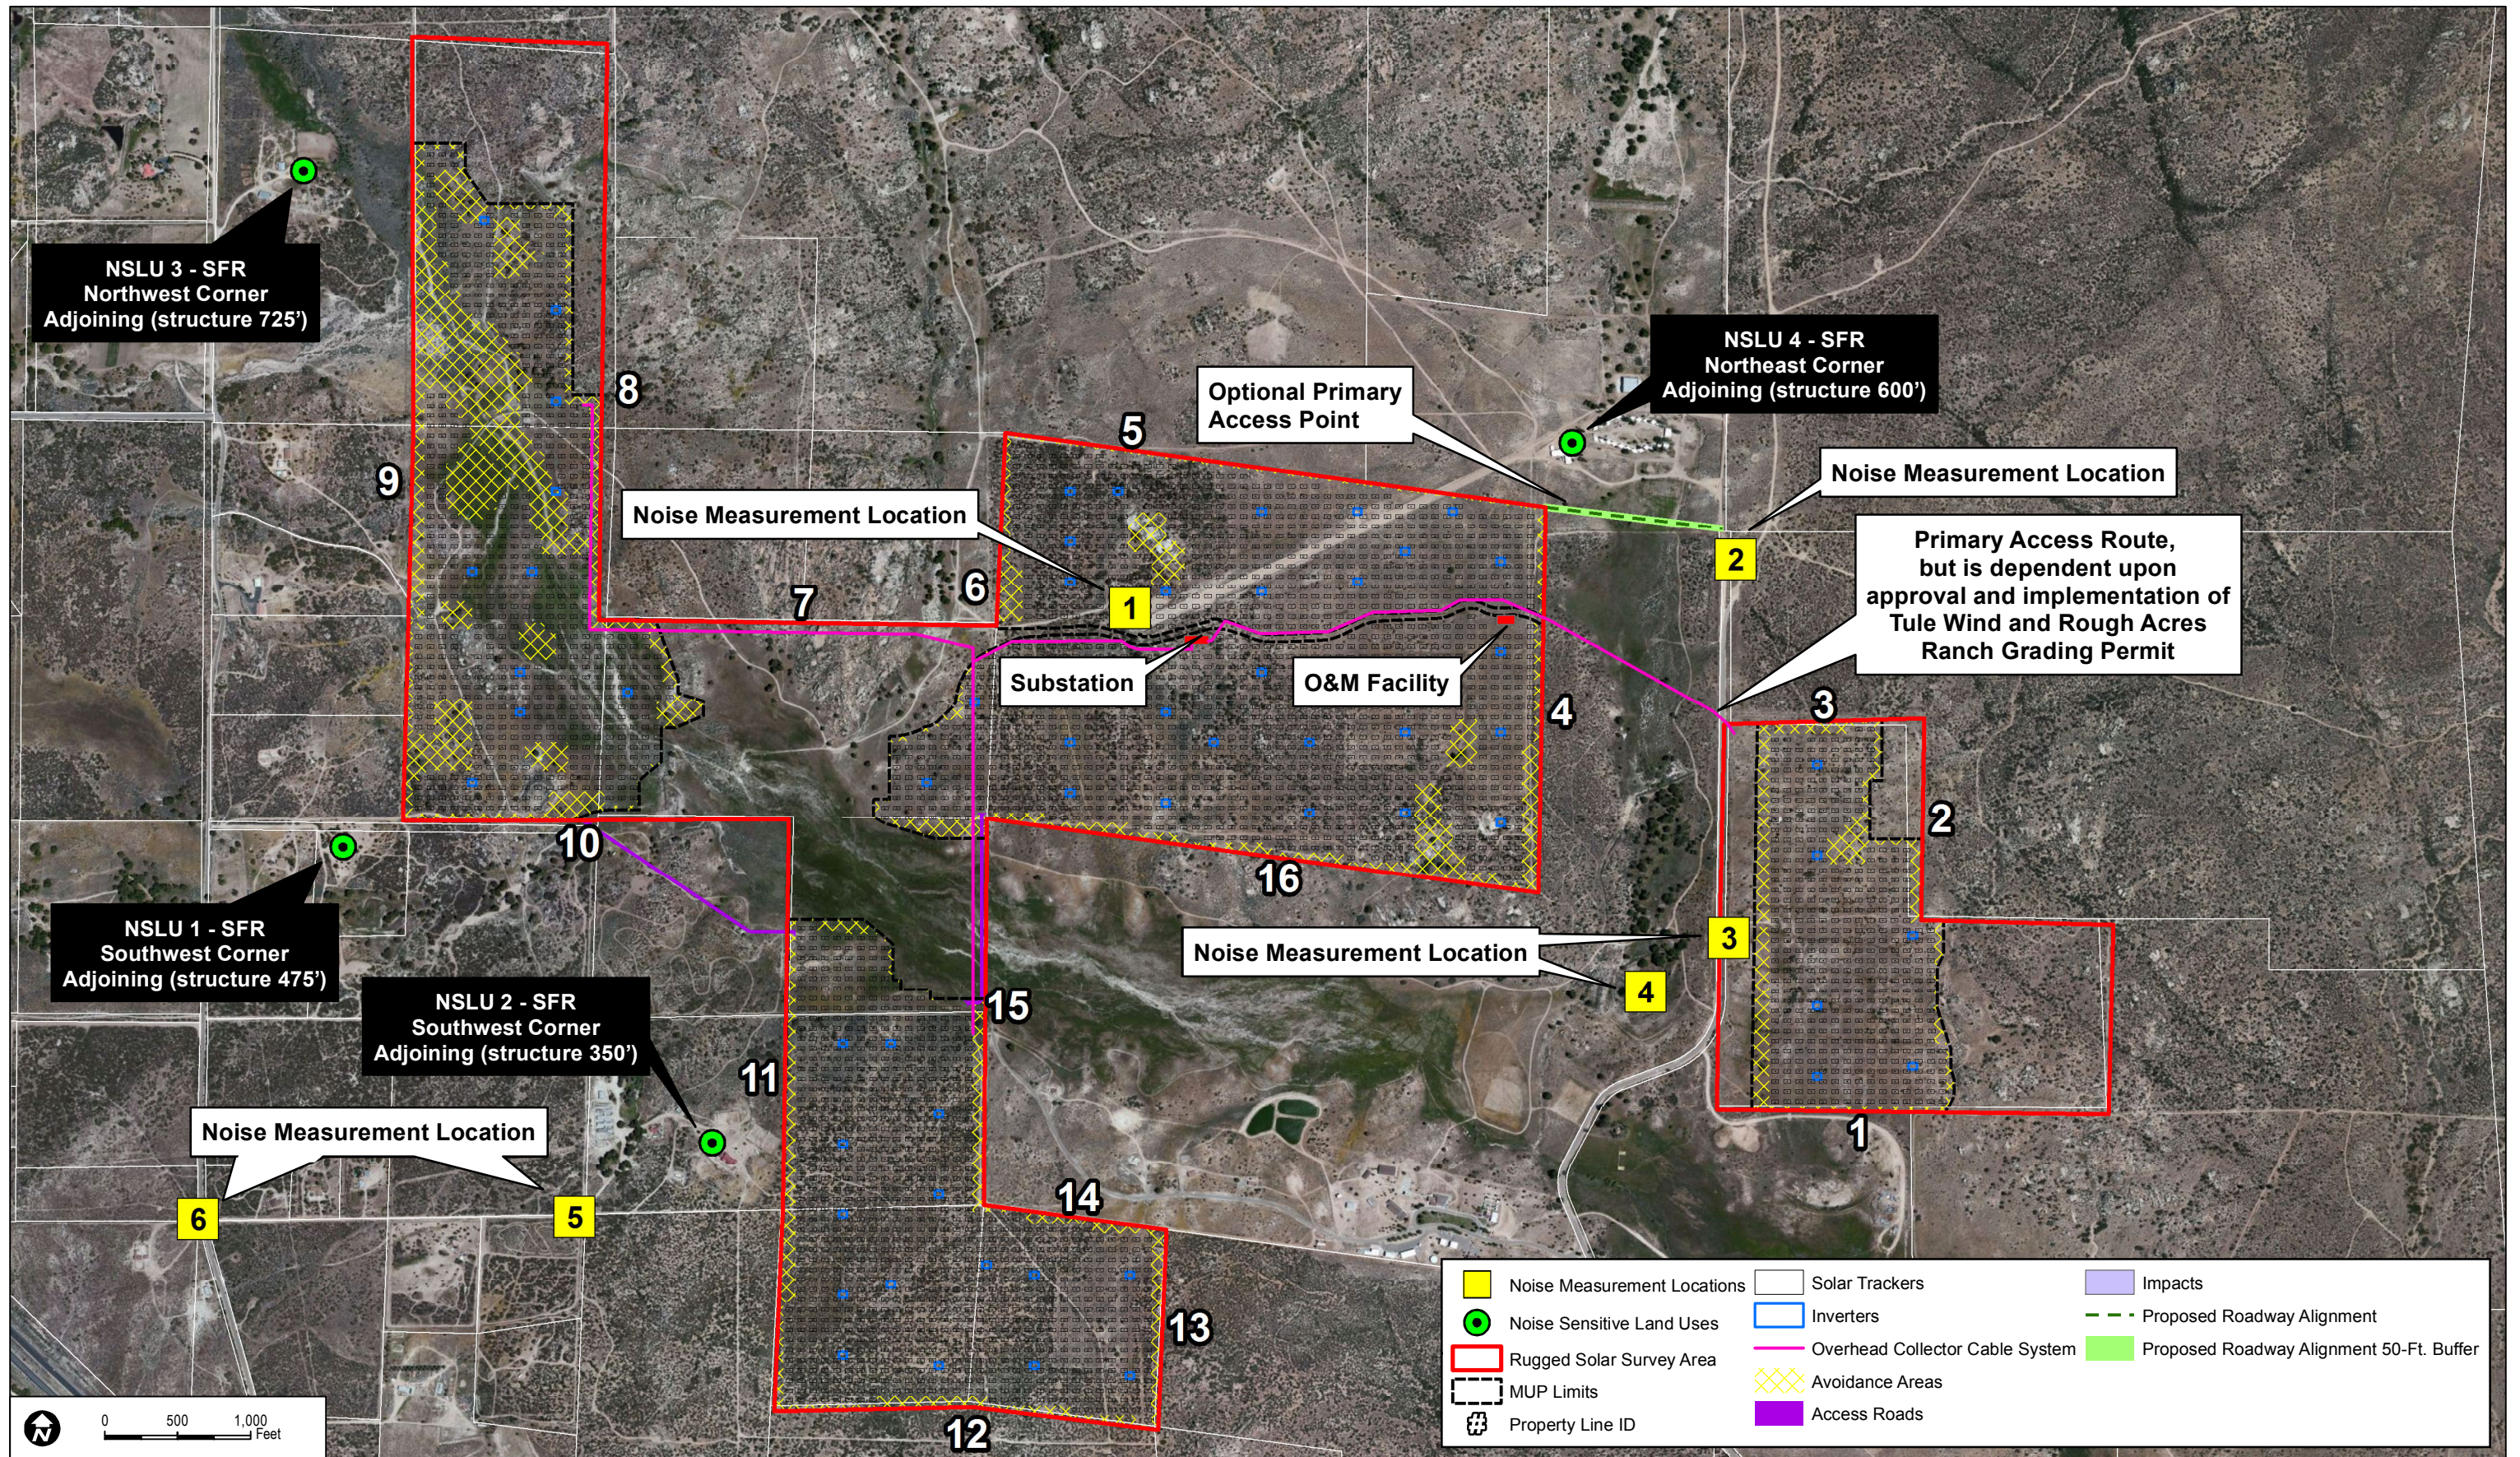

Thanks,
Megan
